String Quartet Opens Summer Music Festival

Five concerts by the American String Quartet next week will date the Summer Music Festival at BYU.

Composed of John Bailey and Marjorie Alsop on violin, David Swartz on viola and David Sofer on cello, the American String Quartet will perform two morning programs and three evening ones. All five concerts will be at 8 in Joseph Smith Auditorium.

ON TUESDAY, June 18, at 10 a.m. the quartet will play "Quartet in A minor, Opus 28" by Schubert and "Quartet in F major, Opus 3, No. 5" by Haydn.

At 8:15 p.m. Wednesday, June 19, they will perform Mozart's quartet in D major, K. 499, and Webern's "Five Pieces, Opus 15" and Brahms' "Quartet in C minor, Opus 3, No. 1."

Thursday, June 20, at 10 a.m. the quartet will play "Quartet in G minor, Opus 74, No. 3" and Walter Piston's "Quartet No. 3" which will be the last of the series. The quartet will play Beethoven's quartet in C minor, Opus 18, at 8:15 p.m.

Music, Play, Dance of June Calendar

Many Summer School activities have been planned and placed on a calendar, according to Dean Peterson, director of Summer school.

Activities throughout the month of June are as follows: June 17, p.m. Registration; June 18, a.m., American String Quartet; 8:15 p.m., "The Sound of Music"; June 19, 10 a.m., Student Union Assembly in the Joseph Smith Auditorium; June 20, 10 a.m., Soprano Marni Nixon; June 21, 3 p.m., Arena Play—"Night is Full"; June 28, Student body picnic.

Other events have been scheduled for July and August and will be published at a later time.

Southern Utah Accident...

Crash Kills Two Faculty Members, Injures One

Two R.Y.U. faculty members were killed and one injured in an accident on June 10 which occurred in Southern Utah. The crash occurred in Southern Utah.

DR. MERLIN John Shaw, assistant professor of religion, and Harvey Darrel Taylor were killed when the truck in which they were riding stalled on a hill and then rolled backwards over a side. R. Chase Alfred, associate professor of agronomy, received a multiple fracture of the wrist, dislocation of the left hip, a fracture of the left shoulder and a fracture of the right shoulder.

The three were members of a group of 46 Explorers and chaperones headed for Hole-in-the-Rock area where they planned to leave on a trip down the Colorado River to the Crossing of the Fathers.

DR. SHAW joined the R.Y.U. faculty in 1959 as a religion instructor. Prior to that time he was a teacher in the LDS Seminary program in the Salt Lake area. At the time of his death he was bishop of the Manauva ward in Provo.

No. 4" and Mendelssohn's "Quartet in D major, Opus 44, No. 1."

THE FINAL concert on Friday, June 21, at 8:15 p.m. will feature Haydn's "Quartet in D minor, Opus 75, No. 2" and Debussy's "Quartet, Opus 10."

The four instrumentalists are individually well-known to the music world, but they have achieved outstanding success as members of the quartet. The group was organized through the efforts of Herman Krawitz of the Metropolitan Opera.

Election Set For June 26

Election of student body officers for R.Y.U.'s fifty-third Summer School Session has been scheduled for June 26.

The main event prefacing the election will be the annual election assembly June 25 in the Joseph Smith Auditorium in which candidates state election platforms.

Officers available are student-body president, vice president and secretary. Applications are available in Room 190 of the Student Service Center. They must be filled out and returned by 5 p.m. June 24.

Qualifications for office require that applicants be carrying a full load (10 hours for the two sessions) and have a 2.5 grade point average.

Elections chairman will be Dave Yonkster, a senior from Beverly Hills. He will select a committee to run the elections and enforce election rules.

Traditional activities presided over by elected officials are the annual Chicks Fly, a watermelon on bust, and the Summer Formal Dance and assembly. To the list is added a series of original activities planned by the new officers.

Registration Procedures Outlined

Students will register Monday for the fifty-third Summer School session at BYU and classes will start Tuesday, according to William R. Sidway, director of Records and Admissions.

"Students who were in attendance during the regular 1962-63 session or attended the summer sessions in 1961 or 1962 will not need to apply for readmissions," Dean Sidway said.

REGISTRATION packets have been prepared for all students in attendance at BYU during the spring semester who indicated they would attend the summer session when they registered second semester.

Dean Sidway said that all students registering for any pre- or post-session courses or workshops, or for non-credit courses and workshops held during the two sessions will register at the first meeting.

Dr. Dean A. Peterson, Summer School director, said anyone with the proper background may register for non-credit courses or workshops without clearing with admissions. "If a student desires accreditation for a course, formal admission must be obtained from the University," he said.

THE OFFICE of Records and Admissions said that students must register in the following order.

Undergraduate Students: 8 a.m. Aag-Boo; 8:15 Boo-Coo; 8:30 Coo-Fel; 9 a.m. Fel-Har; 9:15 Har-Jen; 9:30 Jen-Lau; 10 a.m. Lau-Mer; 10:15 Mer-Pal; 10:30 Pal-Rob; 11 a.m. Rob-Spr; 11:15 Spr-Ver; 11:30 Ver-Zz.

Graduate Students: 1 p.m. Aag-Boo; 1:15 Boo-Coo; 1:30 Coo-Fel; 1:45 Fel-Har; 2 p.m. Har-Jen; 2:15 Jen-Lau; 2:30 Lau-Mer; 2:45 Mer-Pal; 3 p.m. Pal-Rob; 3:15 Rob-Spr; 3:30 Spr-Ver; 3:45 Ver-Zz; 4 p.m. All late.

Razing of Wymount Completes Era At BYU

Looking from the top of the new 'Y' Student Center, gives a bird's eye view of the dismantling of the old Wymount Village. These temporary buildings were war surplus and have been used to house BYU students since 1946. They will be razed during the month of June.

The end of an era is being written at the BYU—Wymount, the war surplus student housing village is coming down.

Courses Added To Night School

Twenty new classes have been added to the list of evening courses to be offered during the 1963 (B.Y.U.) Summer School.

The new courses being the total night school offerings to 145 classes as compared to 125 offered last year, according to Mrs. Irene Webb, director for Adult Education and Extension Services.

EVENING COURSES will be aimed at the needs of those attending summer sessions. Many are designed for advanced degree seeking students, and particular emphasis will be given to education courses.

Mrs. Webb said a good selection is available in graduate education with 16 different courses being offered. Ten are to be available in teacher education.

STUDENTS who will be registering for regular daytime classes may register for evening school classes at the scheduled registration time.

For special students and those taking only evening classes, registration should be completed at the Evening School Office in the Clark Student Service Center, Room 272.

The village, moved to BYU from Hill Field in July 1946, has provided housing for thousands of students during the rush of enrollments following World War II and in the phenomenal growth of BYU since then.

THE PROJECT involves the dismantling of 12 of the remaining 15 large barracks-type two-story buildings, all that are left of the original 27 buildings.

The razing will be completed during the month of June. The area will be repaired and blacktopped, marked and lighted for a parking lot. It is just across the campus boulevard from the new Y Student Center, which will be one of the nation's largest union buildings, and the new Franklin S. Harris Fine Arts Center, both still under construction.

ALL OF THE buildings except the northernmost three will be removed. They presently are serving as a television studio, temporary office building, and storage for scenery and drama props. They will be razed also when the new Fine Arts Center is completed next year.

The first phase of the program will provide parking for 1,652 cars, and eventually the lot will accommodate 1,272 cars.

President Ernest L. Wilkinson also has announced approval for construction of five 7-story residence halls for single women.

Melodrama To Be First Offering Of Summer Theatre Season

The summer theatre season on the Brigham Young University campus will open June 28 with a production of Emlyn Williams' exciting melodrama, "Night Must Fall."

DIRECTED BY Dr. Charles Metten, the play will run through July 3, with performances beginning at 8:15 p.m. each night in the Arena Theatre, C-94 ASB. Plot of the story centers around Mrs. Bramson, an elderly hypochondriac, who befriends Dan, a bellhop from a nearby hotel and takes him into her home as a servant. When one of the hotel guests is found murdered at the edge of Mrs. Bramson's property, evidence points strongly to Dan. Suspense mounts to a climax when Mrs. Bramson and Dan are left alone in the house at the edge of the woods with night closing in.

CAST IN THE role of Mrs. Bramson is Marilyn Allphin, Orem. Dan is portrayed by Jim Hays, Central Point, Ore. Olivia, Mrs. Bramson's niece and hired companion, is played by Pauline Duke, Washington, D. C.; and Olivia's would-be suitor Hubert, by Kent E. Nelson, Preston, Ida.

Nurse Libby, who tries to convince Mrs. Bramson that she is perfectly healthy, will be played by LaRee Ricks, Provo. Cast in the roles of Mrs. Bramson's servants are Sally Zelepugas, Corona, Calif., as Mrs. Terence, the cook and Janet O. Sharp as Dora, the dull-witted maid who brings Dan to the Bramson household.

Inspector Belzize, the Scotland Yard investigator who ruthlessly tracks down clues to solve the murder, is played by Stan Porter, Tarzana, Calif.

BYU Special Courses and Conferences has announced special summer classes on children's rhythms and beginning typewriting.

Children's rhythms will be taught by Karen Quarstrom from June 17 to July 18. Designed to help children develop a natural means of self-expression and become familiar with rhythm, the class will meet twice a week at Women's Gym, Fifth North and University Ave. Children between the ages of seven and 11 are eligible to enroll.

STUDENTS WILL furnish their own clothes—shorts for both boys and girls. Those who have leotards may wear them, Mrs. Quarstrom said.

BEGINNING typewriting sections will run from June 18 to July 19 and from July 22 to Aug. 23. Classes will begin at 7:40 a.m. and end at 8:40 a.m.

The non-credit course is designed to give the student mastery of the keyboard and development of fundamental skills of typing.

Information on registration procedures can be obtained by calling FR 4-1211, extension 2011 or 2754. Special Courses and Conferences office is at 768 Briar Ave., Provo.

'Y' To Give Guidance

Counseling services will be available at BYU to students beginning with those who have completed their junior year in high school, according to Scott Orrock, director of the summer counseling and testing program. This will help some students plan their senior year in high school, he said.

The service will provide both vocational and educational counseling free of cost. The service will be available to students no matter where they plan to continue their education.

COUNSELORS will administer vocational tests, evaluate test results and conduct conferences adjusting to college and selecting majors.

Last year's summer program was held on just two days a week, but this year counselors will be available all week to avoid the service, according to Orrock.
